NEVER DESPAIR

WHEN things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

LIFE is strange with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns.
AND many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he worked it out;
DON'T give up though the pace seems slow---
You may succeed with another try:
SUCCESS is failure turned inside out---
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt.
AND you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
SO stick to the fight when you're hardest hit---
It's when things seem worse
THAT YOU MUST NOT QUIT.

On one occasion, The Reverend Martin L. King's sermon was based on forgiveness.
He urged the congregation not to harbour grudges against those who had offended them. He asked everyone in the church to stand. Then he requested:
"Those of you who forgive and forget past grievances please be seated. About half of those in the church sat down. The famous preacher proceeded to quote verses from the Bible and repeated the question to those still standing. At this point most sat down.

He pleaded further for them to follow the Christian way and one by one they sat down.

Just one old lady remained standing. "Madam, the Reverend King asked, "why can't you forgive your enemies?"

"Because I have none," she replied.

"That is remarkable ... at your age ... to have no enemies is wonderful. To what do you attribute this incredible achievement?"

She gave him her best wry smile and quipped, "The old biddies are all dead!"

Moral: Jesus' Death and Resurrection have won for each of us the Grace to overcome the temptation to despair no matter what life throws at us. In gratitude for this marvellous gift .. He asks us to forgive!
