We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Carolina Blaj, aunt of Evan Skelly's wife Martha Daniella, who died in Romania. May she rest in peace.

A member of the St. Vincent de Paul once visited a poor woman in order to bring her a sum of money which she badly needed. He knocked at her door, not once or twice only, but got no response, and he had to go away disappointed with the money still in his pocket. Meeting her a few days later, he told her of his fruitless visit. She replied, with tears in her eyes, that she had heard him knocking, but thought he was the rent collector, and she dare not open the door, for she had not the money to pay the rent.

Moral: "Behold I stand at your door and knock", says Jesus - We must try not to make the mistake of this lady in the story.

Leonardo da Vinci took a friend to assess his masterpiece of the "Last Supper," and the remark of the friend was, "The most striking thing in the picture is the cup!" The artist took his brush and wiped out the cup, as he said, "Nothing in my painting shall attract more attention than the face of my Master!"—

Moral: Again, we must not let our attention be distracted from the Lord by the material attractions of life.
