VILLAGE CLEAN - UP

On Wednesday next the 14th of June there will be a big clean up in the village. The Tidy Town are anxious to have the village clean and inviting for the arrival of the judges and also for the remembrance ceremony for Thomas Ashe. The cleanup starts at 7:00pm at the Hill Hall. Please bring a shovel and a brush.

There is an Arabian story told to explain the nature of Love.

When an old man realised that he had not much longer to live, he decided to make his will. He had a herd of 18 camels and 3 sons. The custom of his tribe was to give one half of the herd to the eldest, one third to the second and one ninth to the youngest. This means dividing the herd by 2, 3 and then 9.

He kept his favourite camel for himself, so that left 17.

How did he manage to fulfil the will? You cannot divide 17 camels by 2 nor 3 nor 9!!

Answer: He added his own favourite camel to the 17 and so that made 18. Nine camels went to the eldest, six to the second and 2 to the youngest. That means there is one camel left over... so he was able to take back his favourite for himself.

Moral: If you are prepared to be generous and loving - it will be returned to you in kind!!
