Reflection:

Nicolo Paganini was a well-known and gifted nineteenth century violinist. He was also well known as a great showman with a quick sense of humour. His most memorable concert was in Italy with a full orchestra. He was performing before a packed house and his technique was incredible, his tone was fantastic, and his audience dearly loved him. Toward the end of his concert, Paganini was astounding his audience with an sensational composition when suddenly one string on his violin snapped and hung limply from his instrument. Paganini frowned briefly, shook his head, and continued to play, improvising beautifully. Then to everyone's surprise, a second string broke. And shortly thereafter, a third. Almost like a slapstick comedy, Paganini stood there with three strings dangling from his Stradivarius. But instead of leaving the stage, Paganini stood his ground and calmly completed the difficult number on the one remaining string.

Attitude

Attitude is more important than the past,
 Than education,
 Than money,
 Than circumstances,
 Than failures,
 Than success,
 Than what other people think or say or do.
 It is more important than appearance,
 Giftedness or skill.
 It will make or break an organization,
 A school, a home.
 The remarkable thing is we have a choice every day.
 Regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day.
 We cannot change our past.
 We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way.
 We cannot change the inevitable.
 The only thing we can do
 Is play the string we have.
 And that is our attitude.
 I am convinced that life is 10 percent what happens to me
 And 90 percent how I react to it.
 And so it is with you.
